"Something happened at Beaver Hollow that has forever changed the way we approach innovation. From the introspective atmosphere to the functionality of the meeting spaces, and capped-off by our team Mindful Mile walk, we were able to establish new consensus-driven strategies and guidelines for new product development to help us grow our company."

- Chuck Salem, CEO, AMARC, Inc.

Someplace Special

It happens time and time again. People leave Beaver Hollow renewed, refreshed and impacted by their time in such a special place. Maybe it's the peaceful, natural setting on hundreds of acres that helps people leave their worries at the entrance. Some may say it's the opportunity to connect with others and themselves in a place that actively invites them to do so. For others, it's regaining inspiration and motivation for healthy living through our unparalleled fitness and wellness offerings and healthy catering possibilities. Maybe it's simply the opportunity to be and feel at peace.

Whatever the reason, at Beaver Hollow we see it in our attendees each and every day. It's what motivates us to serve you. It's our goal for each and every attendee. Come gather with us at Beaver Hollow and renew, connect, be inspired and achieve your goals.

There is more to a gathering space than functionality. A productive gathering space is felt and experienced. At Beaver Hollow, we offer spaces that are traditional and those that are unique to our breathtaking natural environment. The possibilities are endless and always warm and welcoming.

To complement each area, we offer a full array of room set-ups and technology options to facilitate professional presentations, strategic planning, team building and dialogue. Many of our outdoor and lakeside spaces are ideal for networking to facilitate understanding, outcomes and decision-making. When the work is done, these same spaces provide a wonderful backdrop for your attendees to relax and recharge.

Grow Together...And Alone

At Beaver Hollow, we recognize the differences we possess as individuals and how these differences can be a source for celebration, but also a barrier to progress. Whether your goals are to create stability within individuals or an organization, Beaver Hollow can assist you.

At Beaver Hollow, we provide many possibilities to help organizations and individuals overcome barriers and experience growth. From our healthy lifestyle options through Biggest Loser Resort Niagara, to our onsite team building facilitation or our proprietary Mindful Mile walk, finding your true north at Beaver Hollow provides everlasting impacts on you and your organization.
